When John Creed died, it was only the beginning of the changes he was about to experience. John died on the operating table, after a deadly car crash. After many desperate minutes he was revived. Now John carries the memory of having been dead, of having left his body and this earth and walked that long tunnel into the light. He has returned with more than memories - he has a new ability to see into the hearts of others. He has a mission - places he must go, people he must help. John has been sent back for a purpose. Though he struggles with the visions, he must accept the gift of life that he s been given and follow the path set out for him. He is to become a guardian angel. Along the way he will find new friends, renew old friendships, and discover a love such as he had never thought possible. Parting the Veil is a story of love and redemption. The tale of John Creed and his journey beyond death into a full life of the spirit will inspire everyone who reads it.
