Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: .had been given by the Petitioners, that they did not intend to rely upon the question of qualification. Mr. Tindal A tkinsou said his clients had received no notice to this effect. The Chairman said that Mr. James had better prove that the notice to which he had alluded had been given. Mr. Pigolt said that the resolution of the Committee would exclude from the room the Siiting Members; he presumed that his friend, Mr. James, did not object to their presence. The Chairman said that the Committee had not the least objection to either the Sitting Members or the petitioner being present, but that unless an arrangement to this effect were made between the counsel, there might be a difficulty as to their being examined hereafter. Mr. James stated that he was quite willing to enter into this arrangement. Mr. Thomas Knox Holmes was called;...
