Parish and theatre are contradictory terms for many; to associate them may sound like flat blasphemy. Perhaps this is the first occasion for using the phrase, The Parish Theatre. Yet the institution itself exists, has been in existence, in this country for half a century at least, in the old world, off and on perhaps since parishes began to be; but it had no particular name, and because of that fact perhaps few people were aware of its existence. Now that it is properly baptized, with its name inscribed in the register, its personality may take on proportions. It will be recognized at once by the experienced as a department of another institution known as the Amateur Theatre. Within the last thirty years most Americans have become...
