The Midnight Turn (Paperback)

By Robert Hazelton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hollywood beckons! Genevieve St. Claire s novel The Midnight Turn became a big hit when it was initially released. Her meteoric ride to genre fame brought her to various conventions, talk shows and workshops across the country. When a movie producer decides to option the book for a big budget movie, her head spins with the possibilities, especially since she can t claim the rights to her first book, a well-known horror novel published in 1818. Gen s second dive into literature was inspired by her vampire creator, Christian Lark, an unpredictable and romantic figure she s polished into something a modern audience can tolerate. Enter the proposed leading man, Jacob Moran, wizard and descendant of the Lark line. His semblance is uncanny, his youth intoxicating but there s also Allan Taylor, the handsome screenwriter hired to adapt the book. With half a dozen lives intermingling amidst the chaos of film production, The Midnight Turn explores a human experience through the eyes of the supernatural. Enjoy the show!.
