Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Rajkumar College: Raipur, Central Provinces; A Sketch Mr. Fraser, in writing to the then Chief Commissioner at the close of the year 1891, laid special stress on the importance of an improvement in mental training, moral training, and dress: and he attributed the failure of the institution in Jubbulpore to the following, amongst other, causes: to the pupils having their meals in their own separate rooms with no one near them except servants: to their spending their holidays, and Sundays in loafing about aimlessly or sleeping in their own rooms: and to their sleeping in separate rooms in the company of servants. The only alternative that seemed to present itself to the authorities of that time was to abolish the institution altogether, and to send the young chiefs to Ajmere, to the Mayo College there. However, other counsels prevailed, and negotiations were commenced for its removal to another place more central and therefore more convenient for the chiefs. Before coming to this, however, I have a few remarks to make on what I consider to...
