Government Accountability Office, 2005 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)61730891 Subject: Border patrols -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . U. S. Customs and Border Protection, a component of the Department of Background Homeland Security, has the primary responsibility for securing the nations borders. The U. S. Border Patrol is the uniformed enforcement division of CBP responsible for border security between designated official ports of entry into the country. According to the Border Patrol, its priority mission since the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, has been to prevent terrorists and terrorist weapons from entering the United States between official ports of entry. In addition, the Border Patrol has a traditional mission of preventing illegal aliens, smugglers, narcotics, and other contraband from entering the country, as these activities directly affect the safety and security of the United States. Border Patrol agents generally report to Border Patrol stations and substations in each of these sectors at the start and end of their workdays; these stations function much as police stations do for police personnel around the country. The 9 number...
