By Lena Keshvari

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Back home Katy is bored and the summer holidays are long, sporadic quarrels with her little noisy and extremely nosy brother Mathew has reached to a point where any further deliberate ghost stories about Mrs Appleberry will have such consequences as washing his underwear the next time he wets himself, so when one summer s afternoon just before she s ready to blow the roof off of the house with music her Mirror speaks to her and asks her to help his world, at first she is frightened but most of all excited and bewitched. She grabs the chance of adventure and is hurled into a magical and unknown world of Mirrors. A world far away from her own, a world torn apart by evil witches, sorcerers, wizards and exiled kings. At first a land of beauty to Katy s unaccustomed eye it has hidden hostility, danger and evil entwined in it. Her journey takes her from the river of death to the island of Lanthia and the valley of the dead. She is alone and yet...
