The Committee reassembled at 9 o'clock, at their previous place of meeting, all the members, in their places. The counsel for the Church, Rev. J. S. Gardiner, and also the counsel for Dr. Huston, Eves. S. S. Roszell, D. D., and Rev. F. H. Richey, being present. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. S. Rodgers, chairman. After the opening service, the deposition of Cavil H. Carson, with whom Virginia Hopkins lived, was read. This deposition was taken before Rev. James E. Evans, D. D., in Savannah, Georgia, under a commission duly issued by Rev. S. Rodgers, the counsel on both sides agreeing that the deposition should be taken without the appearance of counsel. Cavil H. Carson deposes: --I have known Virginia Hopkins about three years; from intimations had before she left Baltimore for Savannah...

Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have got read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
