

Invisible Power Book Two: Alex Noziak

By Mary Buckham

Cantwell Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 314 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. If she wins hell lose his freedom. If he wins she'll watch her brother die. Sworn enemies and former lovers must hunt the same enemy with different agendas. Alex Noziak, part-witch; part-shaman must save her brother before warlock Bran eliminates the only man who knows where her brother is hidden. The IR Agency's new recruits, each with unique if untested abilities, are brought deeper into the world of the preternaturals as their governing body, the Council of 7, is caught in a dangerous and vicious feud between Weres and Shifters. But when Alex has a chance to save her brother and capture the Weres who held him hostage disaster happens. I'm a sucker for anything to do with magic and the unique twists that include that magic. Alex caught my attention from the first sentence. Mae Pen at Romancing the Genres Alex rocks. Like seriously rocks. . . . She's got a hell of an attitude, and comes out with some pretty witty quips. Leigh K Hunt at Parchment Place was able to dive right into this book, and it kept me wanting to read it...
